

Drive Results with Training Solutions for Your Team

PM Providers Training Programs

Looking for a training solution for your Management staff? PM Providers can provide your training courses on-site or on-line instructor-led, along with follow up coaching to augment your current training offerings. Find out why PM Providers is the right choice for your Project Management, Business Analysis or Microsoft Technology training needs.

PM | Providers

Driving Results with Project Management Solutions

Project Management Courses

◆ Project Management Boot Camp

For the project management professional, the accidental project manager, and project team members, this 1 day course will teach you the fundamentals of project management, the roles of the project constituents, and the project management process with a practical focus on rapidly applicable techniques for delivering successful projects.

◆ Project Planning and Management

This course provides a comprehensive but common sense project planning and control process that focuses on practical techniques for successfully completing projects on time and on budget.

◆ Collaborative Leadership & The Transformational Project Manager

The primary focus of this course is on planning and managing change while developing personal skills to lead project teams and stakeholders through the organizational change process to successfully deploy new business models and technologies.

◆ Project Management Certification Prep Course

The objective of this course is to successfully prepare students for the PMP Exam based on PMI's PMBOK Fourth Edition. The course will teach students the PMBOK framework including the project management process groups and knowledge areas as well as additional material needed to successfully pass the PMP Exam.

◆ Facilitation Skills for Project Managers

This course covers a proven approach to effective facilitation of real-time team communications, conflict management, and consensus building that promotes team- engagement and buy-in. The course includes interactive sessions which will allow attendees to participate in a real-world project requirements gathering and other facilitation sessions.

◆ Project Management Put Into Practice Session

This two-day, hands-on seminar allows students the ability to work with an industry standard project charter, create and manage scope, develop use cases, develop a project schedule, develop a risk matrix and practice all aspects of project management using a software/hardware development case study.

Microsoft Technology Courses

◆ Microsoft Project Made Easy

This interactive course is designed to deliver comprehensive Microsoft Project (Any Version) training. The class will cover a topics designed to deliver real-world knowledge and prepare participants to use Microsoft Project day to day to manage effective schedules.

◆ Microsoft Project for Agile

This interactive course is designed to deliver comprehensive Microsoft Project training for Agile projects. The class will cover a topics designed to deliver real-world knowledge for Agile projects, including developing Sprints, Scrum Reporting and others.

◆ Microsoft Project Made Easy Advanced

This course covers advanced techniques of project management and how to best use the software to customize fields and views, create tables for reporting/printing, import and export project data, and understand multiple project resource allocations.

◆ Microsoft SharePoint Revolution

This course will introduce you to Microsoft Windows SharePoint Server to get your work done more efficiently with tools to communicate track, coordinate, and collaborate on projects.

◆ Customized Project Server Training for PM / PMO Staff, Team Members, Managers & Executives

Project and Portfolio Management

Contact Us

Toll-Free Phone: 888-715-5999

E-mail: info@pm-providers.com

www.pm-providers.com

Other Courses

◆ Risk Management

For the management professionals, project managers, and team members, this 1/2 day course will teach you the fundamentals of risk management and the risk management process with a practical focus on rapidly applicable techniques for delivering successful projects.

◆ Business Analysis for Information Technology

This course provides a comprehensive approach to understanding the Business Analysis role on projects and how that role differs from the project manager. It focuses on practical techniques for developing requirements

◆ Developing Use Cases

This class presents an up-to-date, practical guide to use case writing. The class expands on the classic treatment of use cases to provide software developers with a "nuts-and-bolts" tutorial for writing. The course thoroughly covers introductory, intermediate, and advanced concepts in use case development.

◆ Microsoft Project Server or SharePoint for Administrators

The objective of this course is to develop an understand to how to use the Microsoft Technology in a deployment setting, understanding User Accounts, Sites, Administration Settings, and other parts of the application necessary to maintain the server for end users.

◆ Microsoft Project Server for Team Members

This course covers using the Project Web Access interface to update tasks, work with assignments, share and collaborate on documents, manage issues, risks and other areas for the PWA sites.

◆ Project Management for Executives

This 1/2 day, hands-on seminar Executives to better understand what to expect and how to manage project managers within their organizations.

Webinars

◆ Microsoft Project and Excel—Building Pivot Tables

This webinar is designed to deliver comprehensive knowledge on using Excel pivot tables for reporting and their interaction with Microsoft Project Visual Reporting (Any Version) training.

◆ Microsoft Project KPI's

This webinar is designed to deliver an understanding of how to build formula's, graphical indicators and use other techniques for reporting within the Microsoft Project toolset.

◆ Microsoft Project Resource Management

This course covers techniques of assigning, managing, and updating resource level information within Microsoft Project.

◆ Microsoft Project Progress Tracking

This course will techniques on managing performance level task and/or resource information within Microsoft Project.